

In Celebration Of ...

Mother's Day and Mom's 85th

You are special because

You never fail to put a smile on my face no matter how hard I try to resist. You know me like no one else. You give me the world and ask for very little in return. I thank you for everything.

I love you Leanne

You have a passion inside of you that makes whatever you do completely awesome. You are steady, reliable, and giving. You are always willing to step up to a challenge and are at your best even when a situation is at its worst.

You have fostered a family environment of love and closeness--- that is a major legacy you will leave to your children and grandchildren.

Love, Roger

You are the most important ingredient in my life.

I Love You, Jimmy

Times I will always treasure

All the times we spend together. Because you are our sister and our friend. How lucky are we!

You have a great heart. You are always there for us.

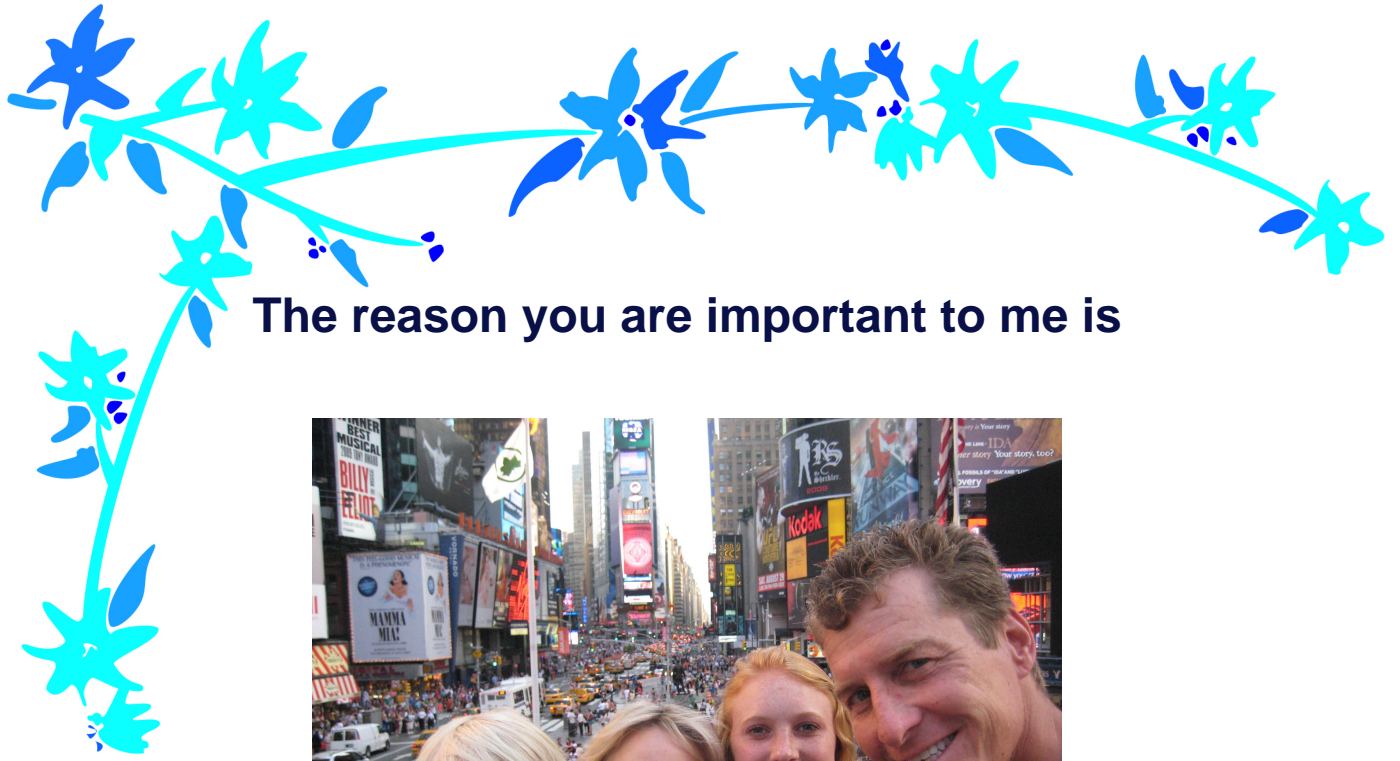

We love you. Sorry we can not be there to celebrate this day with you.

However, this picture should give you an idea of how much fun we are having.

Happy Birthday my dear sister. You are the best. Sam and I are forever grateful to have you in our life.

Sally and Sam

The reason you are important to me is

You have given so much of yourself---through your actions and advice, you have played a major role in the person I am today and the person I will become tomorrow. Words cannot express the gratitude that I owe you.

Now I carry on what you have taught me with my family. We love you very much.

Sending you much love from your NY contingent!
John, Sue, Jodi, & Andrew

The reason you are important to me is

You are my mother, my only one. No one else can ever, or will ever, do what you have done for me. The sacrifices you have made for me, the gifts you have given me, are limitless. You are one of a kind and irreplaceable.

Happy Birthday and Mother's Day.
Love, Robin

Because of your overwhelming compassion. You only wish success, good fortune, and happiness for all of your children. In addition, you are never afraid to put yourself and your needs last on your list of priorities, you are completely selfless when it comes to your family. As a result, I know that I can always count on you when I need you most.

I will never forget how you helped me get through my battle with cancer. Without you, I would not be half the man that I am today and neither would any of the other boys.

I cannot thank you enough, Mom, for all that you have done in the past and continue to do for me everyday of my life.

Love, RJ

What I admire most about you is

Grandma, it is the way you handle everything with ease. You are amazing. No matter what is going on I know I can always come to you and you seem to know the right course and direction I should take. You have great instincts and give fabulous advice.

You are non judgmental and always take the time to listen to me and respect my opinion.

Thank you for welcoming Sarah into the family. I know she feels the same way I do.

I love you, love you, love you. Have a great mother's day.
Love David and Sarah

I love you because

You are always there for me, Grandma. I can always count on you to support me and love me.

You are one of very few stable forces in my life in this crazy, chaotic world and I love you for that and so much more. You have always nurtured me and encouraged me to grow and learn and become a better person.

Thanks for everything, and always know that I will never stop loving you.

What a great day for your 85th and Mother's Day. A special day to wish you much love.

Erica

Sweetheart, what can I say except that even after all these years, you are still the love of my life. Your smile still warms my heart.

We have had a great life. Through the ups and downs, one thing as been constant- our love for each other.

You are the best thing that ever happened to me.

Our family it great because you are everyone's mother, including mine, when I need it.

Happy Birthday Sweetie
I Love You, Jimmy
